

Pam Withers

Dear Parents/Guardians;

Your school recently arranged to host best-selling author Pam Withers. When students experience an author visit, they often like to purchase some of that author's books and have them autographed. (In fact, studies show a link between "owned" books and a keenness for reading.) To be part of the school book order, please complete this form and return it with payment to the school by _____.

Note that Camp Wild and Daredevil Club are for fourth graders and up (and particularly popular with reluctant readers right through high school). Breathless (due to some mature content) is for sixth graders and up. All other books offer a sixth-grade vocabulary level, but are popular with keen readers (or children being read to) in fourth and fifth grade, as well as among readers through tenth grade.

Thank you.
